Adi Kailash, OM Parvat & Mt. Kailash Darshan Yatra 2027 By Road

Since 2002

MT. Adi kailash popularly know as Chhota kailash, is in Indian territory close to the Indian (Tibetan border). The first five days route follows the same kailash Mansarover Yatra. It is ancient holy place in the Kumaon Himalayan range, similar to Mount Kailash in (china/Tibet). Om Parvat is a miracle of nature. On the slope of this mountain one can see OM inscribed in snow. This abode of Lord Shiva in a remote area is worth to have Darshan. The journey begins and ends at Dharchula…. The confluence of the river Kali and Dhauli E, in district Pithoragarh, travel along a large portion of the Kailash Mansarover route. During Adi –Kailash Yatra the route offers breathtaking landscape and panoramas of the mountain range of kumaon Himalayas with the mighty splendors of the snow capped. thick (API & NAMPA peaks) and the gushing Kali river. Thick forest full of wild flowers and number of water falls. In this very exciting region one not only travel along a large portion of the Kailash Mansarover route but also gets to know and understand the social culture life of the people living in the Chaudans / Byans Valleys. The village Kutti is named after kunti, the mother of pandavas. The great saga Vyas muni lived here for a long time and wrote many books.
